TERMS OF SALE

PLEASE READ BEFORE BIDDING.

All bids entered as received and lots distributed to the highest bidder without reserve. When two or more bids are the same the first received gets the goods. When two or more unlimited bids on a certain lot are received, the first one received gets the lot at an advance of 10 per cent. over the highest bid.

No Commission Will Be Charged For Executing Bids.

Lots are sold as catalogued. No lots are broken. Bid by number and lot and at so much per LOT—regardless of the number of pieces in the lot.

All coins are guaranteed genuine, unless otherwise stated, and the guarantee holds good INDEFINITELY.

There are no duplicates in any lot unless so mentioned or stated to be unassorted.

Terms are strictly cash. Parties unknown to me must send a deposit covering at least 25 per cent. of their bids or send satisfactory reference, as I cannot be expected to ship goods to parties whose good standing is not known to me.

Remittances should be made promptly in any way most convenient to yourself. But when sending personal checks please add 15c for collection.

SPECIAL.

A printed list of prices—showing prices realized for each lot of this sale—will be sent FREE to all bidders. To others a charge of 25c will be made.

Please send in your bids early. All bids must be in on or before April 30th, 1908.

CATALOGUE

ANCIENT COINS.

Two Extremely Rare Gold Coins.

o.

1 Greek. Philippus II, 359-336 B. C. Laureted head of Apollo to right. Reverse, Biga in gallop R. Gold stater, 17½ mm, weighing 133 grains. Extremely fine and extra rare. A gem, and seldom offered in this country. Retails at about $50 to $60.

2 Roman. Faustina Sr. About 141 A. D. Beautiful bust with diadem to right, DIVA FAUSTINA. Reverse, Diana standing head turned to left, AVG V STA. 18 mm, weighs 113½ grains. Extremely fine with mint bloom and very rare. About $40 to $50 being its market value.

3 Silver. Syria. Alexander I, 151 B. C. Tetradrachm. About fine. Scarce.

4 Head to right, M. CIPI M F. Rev. Victory in biga. About fine, size 17 mm. Scarce.

5 Bronze. Greek. Head of Herakles R. Rev. Eagle. Fine, with olive color. Green patina covers about one-half of the Rev. Scarce.

6 Roman. 1st Br. Claudius. Head to left. About good, nick on edge. Scarce.

AMERICAN COLONIAL AND STATE COINS.

7 Carolina. 1694 Halfpenny. Elephant standing facing left. Reverse; in six lines,—GOD:|PRESERVE:|CAROLINA: AND:|THE LORDS:|PROPRIETORS.| 1694. The last "O" is over "E." The OLIN in the word Carolina and the letters E of THE and LOR OF LORDS are very faint, almost not distinguishable, otherwise it is a very fair specimen of one of the very rarest of Colonial coins. Brought $130.00 four years ago and certainly worth more today. One in my sale No. 2 sold for $65.00. This one is worth as much and more now.

These rare Colonials are getting extremely rare from time to time, as they are fast becoming unobtainable owing to the fact that all known specimens are in the largest and finest collections of rich men who generally leave their collections to some museum or institution where these coins are forever removed from the reach of the Numismatist.

8 Connecticut. 1787 Cent. Large mailed bust to left. Crosby 14 R. Fine. Rare. A rare variety and in very rare state, as these pieces are seldom found better than "Good."

9 1787 Cent. AUCTORI. CONNECT. variety. C. No. 15 R. Fine and rare. Worth about $3.00.

10 1787 Cent and Mass. cent with horned eagle. About fair. 2 pcs.

13 Vermont. 1788 Cents. VERMON AUCTORI. Two different varieties of the head type. Fair. Scarce. 2 pcs.
14 Fugio or Franklin Cents. Two diff. var. STATES UNITED and UNITED STATES. Fair to very good. 6 pcs.
15 U. S. Nova Constellatio. 1783 Cent. U. S. in large Roman letters. Very good.
16 Another of the same type but smaller planchet and one with U. S. in monogram; the latter is nicked. Good. 2 pcs.
17 Washington Cents. 1783. Laureted head to left. WASHINGTON & INDEPENDENCE. Rev. same type as the early cents. Good.
18 No date. The double headed cent. Busts on either side, WASHINGTON above one and ONE CENT above the other. Very fair.
19 Halfpenny. 1793. Military bust L. WASHINGTON PRESIDENT. Reverse, Ship sailing to right, above HALFPENNY, below, 1793. Fine and rare.
20 Virginia. 1773 Halfpenny. Head of Geo. III to right. Rev. Crowned arms. Extremely fine. Scarce.
21 Talbot, Allum & Lee, 1794 One Cent. About fine. Scarce so choice.
22 Rosa Americana Two pence. 1724. Rose crowned. Fair but much corroded. Scarce.
23 Woods Halfpennies. 1723. Two different die var. Good. 2 pcs.

Have You Seen

MEHL'S NUMISMATIC MONTHLY

For April?

Among the many interesting items in the April number is the excellent article on "THE ORIGIN OF COINS, or How Money Came Into Use," by Rev. Thos. P. Kelly. An article of about 4000 words, very ably written and profusely illustrated with half tone plates.

"A COLLECTOR'S IDEAS ON SPECIALIZING"
By H. F. Williams.
Should be read by every young collector.

"UNCLE GEORGE INTERVIEWED."

Anything from or about Uncle George is certainly worth reading. Mr. Wood, Secretary of the A. N. A., has the following to say regarding these "letters:" "The Uncle George and John letters are receiving as much comment as anything that has appeared in the Numismatic papers. Everybody seems interested in them and speaks well of them."

No collector can afford to miss these "Letters."

"OUR COLONIAL CURRENCY"
(Illustrated)

"THE GODS OF GREECE"
(Illustrated)

THE AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY.
A short sketch, with a photo of their beautiful building.

The usual number of smaller items, together with editorial remarks, Society news, etc., etc.

The best and "newsiest" coin Journal. Only 50 cents for a whole year. Subscribe NOW!
